The concert given by the pupils of St.
Ann's Convent on Wednesday evening was a grand success, as well from point of attendance as an artistic point of view.
That the reverend mothers have been indefatigable in their efforts towards educating their fair young charges was amply demonstrated by the successful issue of Wednesday evening's performance. The large hall of the new convent building, in which the concert was held, was very tastefully decorated for the occasion with evergreens and bunting, and numerous neatly arranged Union Jacks. Surmounting the stage occurred the words "God Save the Queen," painted on white canvas.
The whole producing a most pleasing effect. The programme, which consisted of vocal and instrumental music and a comic drama, passed off without a hitch.
The audience was unstinted of its praise of the performers; all of them richly deserved the hearty applause bestowed upon them. All did well and it is scarcely necessary to particularize, but the excellent presentation of the comic drama "The Man with the Carpet Bag," was really astonishing and is worthy of special note, did not lack of space prevent.

Prince Albert photographers are, after all, negative sort of men.

A west end man calls his mischievous boy "Tray," because he beats the deuce.

Prince Albert bankers wear cheque suits. Collectors wear dun colored ones.

The early closing movement is, of course, intended to tell business men to shut up.

One of the upper ten of the town says there is not much culture in the Northwest, except agri-culture.

Mr. Halbhais, the leader of the Police band, is very modest, and yet he blows his own horn considerably.

Some of the side walks in this town are so bad, that the town constable should go around and "take them up."

An old friend of ours casually remarked yesterday that farmers and washer-men are a good deal alike—they both get their living out of the "soil."

An east end man, who used to be one of the bloys, calls his baby "Toots," out of kindly remembrance of the many times he was on them in his bachelor days.

To the Editor of the Times.

SIR,—Enclosed please find $2 P.O. order for one years subscription to the Prince Albert Times. Glad to find that your fine district is rapidly securing the much needed railway facilities it deserves. If the H.B. road does not look lively, the outlet will eventually be via Prince Albert to Hudson Bay.

Yours truly

A. L. RUSSELL, D.L.S.

Should Premier Greenway's prophecy that the Western Territories will produce for export 20,000,000 bushels of grain this year, be realized, as is proudly hoped, a statistically inclined friend has calculated it will take 50,000 cars of 400 bush-each, or 3,333 trains of 15 cars each, which would necessitate 11 trains per day for 300 days moving that one article alone, irrespective of all other traffic.

The long expected carts have arrived, and F. C. Baker's stock is now complete.

WEST WARD SCHOOL.

A couple of weeks ago we called attention to the wanton neglect of our School Board in refusing to carry out the wishes of the rate-payers in the matter of a west ward school house. Since then, circumstances have come to light which point strongly to the conclusion that the Board purpose refusing to go on with the building this season. What their reasons are for refusing to carry out the pronounced wishes of the people, we have been unable to ascertain. Enough is known however to justify the rumor that selfish reasons are in this case, the main spring of a majority of our august body of Public School trustees.

No branch of our common school system has been developed to a greater extent in proportion to its population, than the West End section and no part of the system is more entitled to attention from the Board than it, but strange to say—with all their claims—no part of our system receives so little attention.

The school has been established about a year. The first building rented for school purposes was soon found too small for the regular attendance, and owing to the season being so far advanced for building operations, another was required which would give greater accommodation, but it was only engaged from month to month, so that no obstacle presented itself why building operations should not have been started early this spring. We understand that notice has been given the owner that the present building will be vacant after this month and that the Board have secured other premises for starting the winter term.

Individual trustees have stated that a change is demanded for sanitary reasons.
We deny this; having examined the premises we know the statement has not a particle of truth in it and claim an injustice is done the owner of the property by any trustee making without foundation a statement of this kind. Should another building be rented, we will have occupied three different buildings within about a year. Many ratepayers regret their inability to make a like number of sudden removals from the personnel of our present school managers. Ordinary men would see in these frequent changes sufficient reason for providing permanent quarters. They have even a stronger one in the recorded opinion of the ratepayers, that a building should have been started months ago.

Were the Board to take half the interest in the common school branch that they displayed in opening the higher department, much greater satisfaction would now be felt by the taxpayers, and our West End population would not be forced to suffer an injustice. We hope even at this late date the better sense of the Board will prevail, and steps soon be taken towards providing permanent school accommodation, for the west ward, before the winter term begins.

We regret to learn that circumstances have occurred of so grave and serious a nature in connection with the affairs of Nisbet Academy that the Saskatchewan feels justified in publishing a long editorial under the significant heading "Cooked Proceedings in High Places." Knowing so well the position the editor of the Saskatchewan, lately held in connection with the academy and the Church which controls it, the public justly expect, after what has been published, that the syndicate will immediately place the public in possession of all the circumstances which led to the publishing of such severe strictures on their conduct. The Saskatchewan is right in stating that the people of Prince Albert are in credential in this matter, but the article "Cooked Proceedings in High Places" is the first intimation many of our citizens have received of any difficulty existing. If the Synod has been guilty of any unjust or illegal act the citizens of Prince Albert, being largely interested, should not hesitate to denounce them. One thing is certain the honor of a large and influential Christian body have been assailed, and the people being interested, demand, as before stated, that they be placed in possession of all the circumstances. It is due to the late Board of Trustees, the subscribers to the fund and the writer of the article herein referred to that such publication be not long delayed. The interested citizens of Prince Albert will hope that the late Board in no way neglected their duties, that their actions as trustees have been regularly reported to the proper quarter and that they are in no way to blame for the present unfortunate position of affairs.

DOMINION DAY.

We are glad to learn that steps are now being taken towards the getting up of a proper celebration for the coming first of July. In the good old days the St. Andrew's society always claimed this particular day as their own and hearty were the efforts they made to ensure a day of pleasure for the public, but managing public celebrations is not a profitable business and none can blame the Society for not displaying in later years the same energy they once threw into the undertaking.

This year we understand the Fire Brigade will assume management of the sports, and we feel satisfied the public will respond to their appeal for assistance and that next Dominion Day will be one of enjoyment for all citizens who appreciate athletic sports of every description, horse racing, etc., etc.

We are not at all satisfied, that heretofore, the Fire Brigade have received anything like fair treatment at the hands of the property owners of the town and in taking steps towards ensuring a day of public enjoyment they are placing us under another obligation, but one which we can in a degree repay by giving liberal assistance in the way of private subscriptions and a grant from the Town Council.
A fat subscription list means a big day of enjoyment. Everyone should lend a hand.

A monster reception was given Senator Loughheed at Calgary on his arrival home from Ottawa. In his reply to an address he gave valuable information as to the intentions of the Government respecting the Western Territories.

There has been an unseemingly wrangle going on lately between the Medicine Hat and Calgary Press regarding the convention recently held at the former place.
There is no doubt but that a serious blunder was made on the part of those who undertook to bring about the convention by not giving more extended notice of the proposed meeting, but the "samples of ignorance" on both sides of the papers concerned do not in any way help the matter, which should be let rest this time, and in future try some more central and attractive town (say Prince Albert) for a convention if necessary.

There are at present strong probabili-ties that the fishery troubles in New foundland may be settled by war. Recent dispatches indicate that matters are rapidly approaching a crisis. The commander of a French man-of-war ordered the people to take up their nets, which was refused. After taking up the nets under arms, the French destroyed them, whereupon the fishermen applied to the local magistrate for protection, but were told that he was powerless to help them.
A large concourse of people, amid great enthusiasm, passed strong resolutions on the 24th May, declaring their resolve not to pay any duty to the St. John's Government until they received protection in their industries. These resolutions were telegraphed to the Governor of St.
John's, and a war ship has been sent to the scene of action.

The Winnipeg Free Press of May 31st remarks "The X 10-U S closes to-night," and adds "There would in the ordinary run of things be nothing particularly remarkable in a restaurant, even with a bar attachment, closing in Winnipeg," but with the closing of so prominent a place of general resort for the past thirty years another leaf is added to the history of Winnipeg." A column is devoted to the history of this old landmark, known to all old timers throughout the Northwest, in the old days, as Emerling's Hotel.
Before Manitoba was a province this place was widely known as a resort for the sports; a stopping place for travellers; the rendezvous for agitators and patriots and many an English lord as well as Irish feudal and rebel has found shelter under its roof. Many of Prince Albert's citizens can recall with interest some events which have made this building worthy of note. Alex. McIntyre, the present owner, is tearing down the old building to make room for a proposed extension of the McIntyre Block, at a cost of $25,000.

HON. D. MCINNES.

The Hon. D. McInnes, of Hamilton, a director of the Canada Pacific Railway, paid us a visit last week, and remained a few days. He seemed much pleased with the progress the town had made since his last visit some years ago, and speaks confidently as to the future. The Regina and Long Lake railway, he says, will be completed to Prince Albert early this fall. The work is now far advanced and the bridge across the South Saskatchewan River well under way.

There are few men who have devoted more time or attention to the opening up and development of Canada than he, connected as he has been for years with the Canadian Pacific Railway; he has also been one of our foremost men in furthering the construction of other railways in Canada, notably, the Hamilton & North Western; the Hamilton & Port Dover and the Wellington Grey and Bruce railways, all centering in that beautiful and stirring commercial metropolis—Hamilton.

In legislature we find his voice heard in the halls of the Senate, and more particularly with such matters as may effect the Northwest Territories, a portion of Canada with the wants and requirements of which he has no doubt himself thoroughly conversant. We question much if there be a minister of the Crown or a member in either House of Parliament as the roughly versed as he in the capabilities and requirements of this country.

Though advanced in years we are happy to find in him the same active men we had the pleasure of meeting years ago, and trust he may long live to assist still further in the prosecution of other works of equal importance to those above alluded to. Few men in Canada have stamped their names so indelibly on the pages of future history, than has the honorable gentleman. We tender him our heartiest good wishes and pleasant return to his lovely Hamilton home—Dundurn Castle.

GENERAL NEWS.

LONDON, June 2.—The Guinness Brewing Co. has voluntarily added a shilling a week to the wages of each of its employees supplementing the announcement with the statement that the prosperity of the company's business justifies its sharing an increase of profits with the men who have contributed to its prosperity by their industry and fidelity. This increase of wages, made quite unexpectedly and without solicitation, will add the sum of £7,000 a year to the company's pay roll and incalculably increase its popularity as well as that of its products with the working class.

SOFFIA, June 2.—The sentence of Capt. Kalobkoff, of the Russian army, who, as a conspirator with Panitz, was condemned to nine years' imprisonment, has been commuted to banishment.

LONDON, June 2.—Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria has issued a special order thanking his troops for their splendid conduct during the recent labor disorder in Vienna and other parts of the Empire.

The Dominion Illustrated of Montreal, which was a fine paper and promised well, has come to grief, and the company is to be wound up.

At Eganville a bull dog and stallion had a desperate fight. The dog began the attack and Groom Sack tried to drive it away. He failed, and to escape took the animal into the stable. The dog followed and Sack took refuge in the manger. The stalls were kicked down in the struggle, and at last the horse struck the dog with his fore feet knocking him down, then looking viciously for a few moments, and seizing him with his teeth shook him, dropped him and struck him again with his fore feet killing him. The horse was very much excited.

TORONTO, June 2.—The lumber section of the Board of Trade to-day adopted a code of rules for the inspection of lumber and a resolution favoring the uniform grading of lumber all over the Dominion. The Board of Trade will be requested to endeavor to procure legislation establishing it to this end.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The taking of the census was begun to-day and proceeded smoothly, only one disagreeable incident being reported. Enumerator Marks was ejected from Bernard Smith's saloon in lieu of obtaining census queries.

LONDON, June 2.—The London Chamber of Commerce is maturing a scheme which it is expected will reduce the number of strikes in a great measure and ultimately abolish that method of settling disputes between employer and employees.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 2.—Two torpedo boats are expected to arrive here from England this month. They will be accompanied by H.M.S. Tyne. A fleet of war ships arrived to-day from Bermuda, including the Partridge, a comparatively new gun boat, a sister ship of the Thrush. She carries six guns. There is a rumor here that a regiment of the line and two batteries of artillery are about to sail from England for Newfoundland.

TORONTO, June 2.—At nine o'clock this morning Col. Gilmour, who commanded a detachment at the Ridgeway affair of 1866, and a number of survivors in the city of the same affair, together with Mayor Clark, Col. Otter, Major Lincoln and Ald. Bonstead, met at the guns in Queen's park and decorated the soldier's monument with flowers. Speeches were made by Col. Gilmour and others.

WINSTON, June 2.—Brakenham Hayo who was killed to-day, was one of the witnesses at the Beuwell inquest. He was the witness who identified Burchell as the man who travelled west with Beuwell and was probably the Crown's most important witness.

DANBURY, Conn., June 2.—Four men were seriously injured, one probably fatally, to-day, by the falling of a portion of a hall and Roger's block in process of construction.

A colored baseball catcher, in the Southern States, was recently killed by the ball, thrown from the pitcher, striking him in the mouth. The ball must have passed through his head.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught met with a hearty reception, and in a great many instances a grand demonstration, at every place in Canada where he stopped during his recent trip across the continent, notwithstanding his expressed desire to be regarded as an ordinary traveller.

CALGARY, June 2.—Tenders for the construction of water works closed last night. Cushing, of Calgary, received the contract.

DUCK LAKE.

Grading outfits are strung all along the rear of Duck Lake. They expect to reach your town about the 25th of July. The locomotive is expected here in twenty days.

Surveyor Reid is busy laying out the townsite, which will be a little east of the present town.

Mr. Drain is getting out material for a large building.

Mann Bros. have the contract for grading through the pines. Keith comes next north of him, and both are now there locating camps.

Rain fell every day this week and crops never looked better than at present.

The Duck Lake livery stable is expected to be in running order next week, with new rigs, harness, etc., direct from Ontario.

Qu'APPELLE.

FORT QU'APPELLE, June 13.—A farmer named Daniel Collins, formerly of Woodstock, Ont., was struck by lightning yesterday while ploughing on his farm, about eight miles from here. He was working with three horses, all of which were killed.

Reasonable.

Dolly (as the song ends)—Why did the minstrel boy take his harp to the war, papa?

Papa (grumpily)—So that he might practice where he wouldn't be heard, I suppose.

The Old Man Knew.

Papa, there's something I want to know.

What is it, my boy?

Why is the moon called she?

Because it is changeable, my son.

A Justifiable Excuse.

What's the reason you have robbed and cheated so much?

The Accused—Like all men, your honor, I was anxious to secure for myself a quiet and comfortable old age.

A Panacea.

McCrackle—I have discovered the true elixir of life.

McCrackle—What is it?

McCrackle—Get sentenced to die by electricity.

Amicably Arranged.

Husband—Am I never to have my own way.

Wife—Certainly, my dove, when we are both agreed you can have your way, and when we differ I'll have mine.

Disconcerting.

A young physician was showing a friend a recent purchase he had made in the way of a skeleton.

Very interesting, commented his friend. One of your patients, doctor?

Influence of the Country Store.

In small communities remote from the large centres of business and social life the storekeeper occupies a prominent position, entirely different from that of his city brethren and he can if he will exercise no little influence upon the welfare of his town by maintaining an inviting establishment; forbidding gatherings of idle persons about his store; providing his customers with what they want and not what he thinks they should have, and taking an interest in the social events of the day. The storekeeper will find this latter point worth considering, for note the popularity of your clerk if he is a sociable young man, as the clerk who wants to succeed must be. Such an employee, without question, makes business for his employer, and why should not the proprietor show the same interests in the events of the day as his assistants? The country storekeeper has better opportunities for becoming thoroughly acquainted with his trade than the merchant of a large city and has therein a great advantage, as it enables him to gauge more accurately the requirements of his patrons. Nothing like acquaintance; and the more intimate it is, the better for both the merchant and his customer. A successful grocer once told the writer that he soon learned to serve his trade with just what they wanted after he had made it a point to become thoroughly familiar with their peculiarities and it was of great assistance to him have a personal intimacy with his customers whenever possible.—Ex.

All the commercial travellers who visit this town say that they do a more profitable trade with our merchants than any other town in the Territories. Allowing for a certain amount of taffy, this statement is worthy of note.

J. M. Campbell and Wm. Miller, the emigration agents appointed by the committee of the Agricultural Society to visit Ontario in the interests of emigration to this district, left on Saturday for their fields of labor. We may expect good results from the visits of these gentlemen, as both are successful Northwest farmers and successful representative men.

There are to be farmers' excursions from Ontario to Manitoba and the North West during June and July. We think the suggestion, that this district should send a reliable man to meet these trains between Port Arthur and Winnipeg and distribute immigration literature and otherwise to direct attention to Prince Albert, a good one and ought to be acted upon at once.

The Regina Leader, with flaming headlines, devotes considerable space in its last issue to inform the world that an oasis has been found in the desert, and says that by the hiding of water in two places near Regina, a long standing obstacle towards the settlement of two of the richest parts of the Territories has been removed. Thank heaven we have no obstacles of that kind to be removed in Prince Albert.

Mr. J. L. Johnson, hardware merchant, returned on Monday evening from a trip to Duck Lake, Saskatoon and other points south. He was accompanied by Mrs. Johnson and son. Mr. Johnson informs us that work on the railroad is being pushed forward with all possible speed. The bridge across the South Branch at Saskatoon will be completed and ready for the crossing of trains early this coming week, and if all goes well we may expect to have the "long felt want" in our midst not later than the 1st of September next. Mr. Johnson made arrangements for the forwarding of eleven tons of freight for his house.

The last number of the Battleford Herald contains an account of the complimentary dinner tendered the Hon. L. Clarke by the Battleford Cricket Club during his recent visit to that town. After a dinner, to which some twenty-five leading citizens of the town sat down, the usual toasts were given, Mr. Clarke made a very effective speech in responding to the toast "our guest." The Herald very justly remarks, that Mr. Clarke has been a liberal supporter of every scheme having for its aim the improvement or the legitimate amusement of the people of Saskatchewan. It is needless for us to refer to Mr. Clarke's liberality here, and we are pleased to say he has returned much benefited in health by his long journey over the plains.

We understand that Mr. Stull, the principal of the Prince Albert Central School, has allowed his name to be brought forward in connection with the inspectorship of schools for Western Assiniboia, vacant through the death of Inspector Grover. In making appointments of this kind, it seems just that teachers of schools in the Northwest Territories should receive the first consideration, especially if, as in Mr. Stull's case, they hold not only first-class qualifications, but also by practical work have shown their capabilities and proved themselves in harmony with the system of education and requirements of schools within the Territories. Mr. Stull has a good record in Ontario, Manitoba and the Territories. He taught for five years in Guelph, Ont.; was principal of the schools in Portage la Prairie, Man., for some time, and in Prince Albert he taught for five years and raised the school to a high state of efficiency. Mr. Stull would be much missed here, but no teacher in the district is more worthy of promotion.

PARTIES intending to build this coming season will find it to their advantage to give F. H. PETERS, Architectural Draughtsman, a call, who will furnish Plans and Specifications of modern and moderate cost houses at reasonable rates.
